3. INVESTMENT OBJECT DESCRIPTION

3.1. SNB - Network for the Blind is a blockchain network for the data processing and quick messaging (My page, messages, news, people search, friends, music, audio books, e-mail, etc.). The social network is based on the WGStick device, which allows the blind and partially sighted people communicating with each other on the principle of the well-known social networks all over the world. (My page, messages, news, people search, friends, music, audio books, etc.).

3.2. WGStick is a device similar to a tablet without the monitor screen. It has a Braille magnetic keyboard. Ordinary magnets serve as buttons. If there is no information on WGStick, the magnets are attracted to one another by themselves. When the user is refreshing his/her page, WGStick receives an encrypted signal from the server processed by the device on Android. The WGStick panel displays the elements of the last page in the social network SNB - Network for the Blind similar to Twitter and Facebook. The Braille characters are used to display the message. At the moment of receiving the information, the message is generated by the change of magnetic polarity.

3.3 The social network pages are switched between on the same principle. The user him/herself can ask to update/receive information on the device. After sending information to the user, the ‘tab magnets’, which have received the information, will be ‘active’. They will be active until the user reads the information received on WGStick. Only after the user’s forced action the information will be reset and sent to the archive or the reads.

3.4. This WGStick device is at the design stage, an active prototyping phase will follow the sale of SNB tokens. For the detailed description of the SNB - Network for the Blind project development stages, please, see the Roadmap.
